

Katherine Trezise is the founder and president of Absolutely Organized. She established the company in 1999 with a desire to help people who were experiencing the negative consequences of not being able to organize themselves. She recognized that her passion and her organizational skills could free these people to spend their time and energy on the people, things, and activities that are important to them.

In addition to managing the day-to-day operations of Absolutely Organized, Katherine specializes in helping people busy people and seniors organize and manage their household administration and personal bookkeeping. She is a sought-after speaker on topics related to leading a more organized life.

In 2007, Katherine was part of the first group of professional organizers to earn the designation of Certified Professional Organizer® from the Board of Certification for Professional Organizers (BCPO). She has been awarded the designations of Certified Professional Organizer in Chronic Disorganization® and Attention Deficit Disorder Specialist by the Institute for Challenging Disorganization (ICD). Katherine is a Certified QuickBooks User.

Katherine is a past president of ICD and a Golden Circle member of the National Association of Productivity and Organizing Professionals (NAPO). She is a member of the American Association of Daily Money Managers (AADMM) and the Georgia Chapters of NAPO and AADMM.

Katherine holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from McDaniel College and a master of business administration degree from Loyola University, Maryland. She has had many years of organizing experience in retail and association management. Katherine currently resides in a reasonably organized home in Johns Creek, Georgia with her husband and is the proud parent of an adult son and daughter.

In an effort to help people who are suffering from chronic disorganization, organization experts Katherine Trezise and Jennifer Power recently published their book My Journey to an Organized Life: A Creative Road Map for Organizing Your Time, Space, and Finances. This unique book uses the power of a story to teach and encourage readers who are on their own journey to a more organized life.

“With a pro like Kathy Trezise leading the charge, anyone can find her way to the organized life.”
